Foster homes are expected to provide daily care and treatment. MBTC has financial responsibility for all medical needs and expect the foster home to comply with any medical directives including giving shots, administering medication. We will provide any items that were surrendered with the animal such as leashes, collars, crates. You will be expected to provide for the daily comfort of the animal which may include a bed, place to sleep, and general nutrition. We do not reimburse for the cost of food.

What financial commitment would you consider appropriate during foster care? $_____/month

Many of the dogs surrendered to us require behavioral modification or training. This can include housebreaking or just learning to walk on a leash. While we do not provide formal training, we will guide and assist you in this process.

The foster parent/family must be available to assist in the placement of their foster dog. This includes being available for our quarterly Meet & Greet opportunities with the public. The date of this event is announced in advance and notice will be sent by email. It is your responsibility to attend this event and be prepared to discuss the dog with any prospective adoption families. This event generally precedes our regular monthly meeting and will begin at 12 Noon. Our standard venue is Pet Junction located at 694 and Rice Street, just west of 35E.

Additionally, foster families are asked to accompany a placement representative at the time the dog is placed. All dogs are placed with a 3 week foster to adopt to ensure that this will be a good and permanent placement for the dog. You will be asked to meet at the prospective home with the dog and all items that were surrendered with the animal. This will be coordinated in advance and you will be asked to be listed as a contact for this family during the 3 week period as well as provide a written description of the animal's daily activities / needs / quirks, etc.
